FINDING PEACE WHEN FACING THE CHALLENGE OF INFERTILITY

“ In The Wait we're invited deep inside their journey – from infertility through to adoption. Along the way are many raw emotions, agonising prayers and painful questions. Yet running through it all is a thread of hope and their faith in God – and ultimately this is a redemptive story. This is a powerful read and will help many! ”

A HIGH-STAKES BATTLE FOR EVERY CHRISTIAN

Jesus warned that deception would grow as we draw nearer to the end times, saying, "Take heed that no one deceives you" (Matt 24:4). Distinguishing truth from error has become an increasingly challenging task – even in the church. We live in a time when falsehoods assault us from every direction, an ever-advancing and unavoidable tempest of deception.

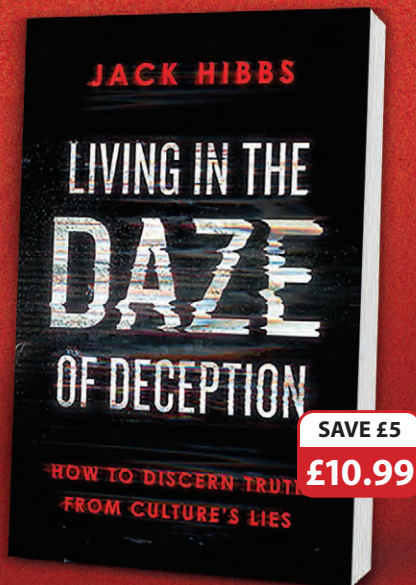

Jack Hibbs explores the many ways error is masquerading as truth – and how you can discern the difference. The greatest antidote to deception is truth. Equip yourself now to grow in discernment so that you can protect yourself from error and remain steadfast in your faith!

A GROUNDBREAKING BOOK ON THE TRUE NATURE OF FAITH DECONSTRUCTION

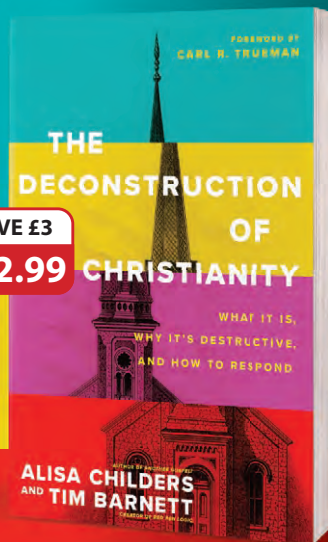

A movement called "deconstruction" is sweeping through our churches, and it is affecting our loved ones—disrupting, dismantling, and destroying the faith of many.

In this seminal book, ALISA CHILDERS, author of Another Gospel?, and TIM BARNETT, creator of Red Pen Logic, will help you understand what deconstruction is, where it comes from, why it is compelling to some, and how it disorients the lives of so many. You will be able to think through the main issues around faith deconstruction and explore wise and loving ways to respond from a biblical worldview with clarity and confidence.

"Alisa and Tim help the reader to deconstruct the deconstructionists and thus to respond to them, both with arguments and with love and sensitivity. This is a timely book!"

12 Things You (Probably) Didn't Know About Easter

Bob Lepine

Easter. It pops up in a seemingly random Sunday each year, easing you gently into spring. The promise of candy and chocolate eggs makes it popular with kids, but it's hardly in the same league as holidays like Christmas... But perhaps it should be?

Here are 12 weird and wonderful facts, spanning all the way from its origins through to the present day, that show the enduring significance of Easter for Christians.

Journeying with God in the Wilderness

Mark Broadway

Jesus' forty days in the wilderness, which many Christians remember during Lent, echoes the story of God's people wandering for forty years in the wilderness. We often struggle to get to grips with the book of Numbers that tells of these wanderings. But this daily Lent devotional opens up how the Israelites' wilderness journey can speak to us in our daily struggles and challenges today, by reading the Book of Numbers alongside the New Testament and reflecting with daily prayers and questions.

From the Grave

A.W. Tozer

From the Grave features A. W. Tozer's best insights on faith, repentance, suffering, and redemption. Gleaned from transcribed sermons, editorials, and published books, each moving reflection has been carefully selected for the season of Lent.

Each day features a brief portion of Scripture for meditation followed by a reflection from Tozer. Together the entries take you on a journey from the garden to the grave to light of day—the "pain-wracked path" to life.

Practicing the Way

John Mark Comer

Best-selling author, John Mark Comer, shows readers what is holding them back from authentically following Jesus – and reveals the countercultural practices to connect us with a vibrant lifelong faith.

We all have experienced unwanted parts of our spiritual journey: distance from God, gaps in our character, the fear that our lives will be trivial and empty. Jesus is calling us into more. Calling us to be shaped in his likeness. To experience his abundance of life.

But how, practically, can we do that? By becoming his apprentice. By practicing the Way. Outlining the timeless process of being with Jesus, becoming like him, and living as he did, John Mark Comer outlines God's vision for the journey of our soul.

When God Buts In

Kate Williams

Are you facing a situation that looks impossible? Many biblical characters faced huge obstacles too, until God brought a 'but' into the situation that changed their circumstances in a powerful way.

When God 'butts' in he isn't meddling or interfering, he is divinely intervening in the situation. Whether that results in a miraculous turnaround in circumstances or grace to sustain you through a trial, God wants to 'but' in and be actively involved in your life. Kate Williams interweaves her personal experience of challenge with biblical truth to help stir your faith and trust God that he knows the intervention you most need.

Pleasing God

R.T. Kendall

Christ's total forgiveness means that we do not have to earn our salvation. When we give our lives to Jesus, we are justified by faith alone. Good works are not required. Prayer is not required. Practicing total forgiveness is not required. Wow--what a gift! But chances are, if you have been born again you want to do good works. You want to pray. You want to forgive and love your enemies. You desire to please God.

In Pleasing God, best-selling author and well-known preacher, R.T. Kendall, unfolds the meaning of persistent faith. Starting with the story of Enoch, Dr. Kendall explores biblical teachings that call believers to "find out what pleases the Lord" (Ephesians 5:10).

Just Be Honest

Clint Watkins

Suffering often causes deep spiritual agony. You might be left thinking, "Where is God? Why is he allowing this?" And then guilt whispers to your soul, "Am I allowed to say these things? Shouldn't I trust God without hesitation?" This honest, warm and personal book shows us that we don't need to wrap up our stories of suffering with lessons and silver linings or suppress our pain.

Being honest with God, and with others, about our heartache is not only "allowed" but encouraged in the Scriptures. Weaving in his own story of pain and loss with biblical reflections, Clint Watkins shows us how lament is permitted by Jesus, shaped by Scripture, fueled by grace and filled with hope.

What Are You Going to Do?

Matt Bronleewe
& Eric Wilson

The inspiring true story of Everett Swanson, a preacher whose world was turned upside down when he stumbled upon starving orphans in war-torn Korea in the 1950s. He could've walked away. But the plight of these children broke his heart. He faced the question: "What are you going to do?".

This story tells how Swanson's answer to those six little words led to the organization known today as Compassion International. Seventy years later, over two million children all over the world have been sponsored.

More to the Story Jennifer Kvamme

What does the Bible really say about identity and gender, dating and sex? Are its teachings out of date and repressive? Or are they the way to joy and contentment? Long-time youth worker Jennifer Kvamme knows teens are grappling with these questions.

In this book she helps readers cut through the cultural confusion and find answers to questions like: why does God care what I do with my body? why does it matter what pronouns I use? is the Bible really against gay marriage? Rather than listing dos and don'ts, this book looks at the whole story of God's love for us. You will be encouraged to trust Jesus with your deepest desires as you follow him in all of life.

You're Not Finished Yet

Christine Caine

Are you facing a difficult season? Do your prayers feel unanswered? The middle of any endeavour – career, relationships, ministry, health – is often when our perseverance waivers, when peace seems out of reach, when the future feels uncertain. It's when life really gets hard.

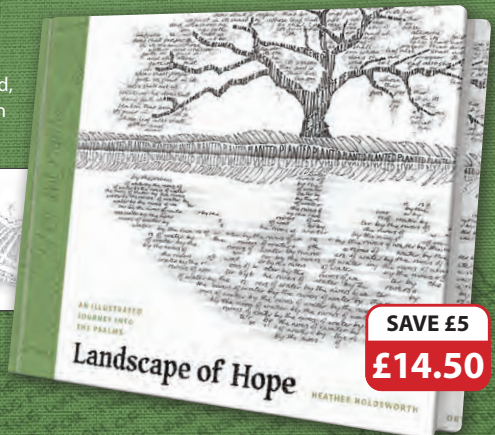

In this devotional, Christine Caine reminds you that you can go the distance – not because you have the strength but because God does. As Christine shares stories from her ministry experience, her personal life, her walk with Jesus, and her hikes through the mountains of Southern California, Christine offers Scripture and spiritual reflections.

The world is noisy and disorientating. Our hearts need beauty & truth.

Heather Holdsworth experienced the death of her father followed shortly by the death of her mother. A few years later she battled a sickness that left her without the strength to stand, walk, or even speak. She opened the book of Psalms. She began writing. And from her writing emerged drawings that brought solace and joy to her soul.

Through the medium of art and words, Heather Holdsworth shares an illustrated journey into the Psalms, taking passages that have become familiar – perhaps too familiar – and reveals their soul-strengthening, heart-restoring power.
